SUBJECT No. 11.

Amendment of Section 3 of the Infant Marriages Prevention Regulation.

Messrs. U. S. Siva Rao, and S. Manjiah, Chikmagalur Municipality.

Summary of discussion.—Section 3 of the Regulation to prevent infant marriages may be so amended as to make it penal to marry a boy of less than 16 years of age to a girl who is not younger than he by at least six years.

The members wanted that the Law should be so changed that there should be a difference of at least six years between the ages of husband and wife.

Reply of Government.—A Bill may be drafted and submitted through the Representatives of the Assembly in the Legislative Council.

Submitted
May the representatives be asked to forward the draft bill to amend the Mysore Infant Marriages Prevention Regn, 1891. referred to in the govt reply above

6 1st Committee,

7. The principle of the legislation need not be accepted. What harm would there be if a man of 22 marries a woman of 21 or 22 or 23?
The matter may be dropped & a reply given if the question is repeated.
